

PROVIDENCE HALL CHARTER SCHOOL

Wellness Policy

It is the policy of Providence Hall Board of Trustees to adhere to the federal wellness law. The purpose of this policy is to provide a school environment that enhances learning and development of lifelong wellness practices in the following manner:

1. Nutrition education will be provided and promoted in health classes following the guidelines provided in the health core and Utah State standard.
2. Physical education will be provided and patterns of meaningful physical activity connected to students' lives outside of physical education classes will be promoted.
3. All foods and beverages made available to students on campus will be consistent with the current Healthy and Hunger Free Kids Act (HHFKA) and Smart Snack guidelines.
4. The school environment will be safe, comfortable, pleasing, and allow ample time and space for eating meals. Food and/or physical activity will not be used as a reward or punishment.
5. The Child Nutrition program will be accessible to all students and must comply with federal, state, and local requirements.
6. All foods made available on campus will adhere to food safety and security guidelines.
7. The Health and Safety Committee will be designated to oversee the implementation and evaluation of the Providence Hall Wellness Policy. This committee is comprised of representation from the Board of Trustees, parents, nurses, food services director, principals, and school operations with the Board of Trustee providing direct oversight. The Health and Safety committee will report findings to the Providence Hall Board of Trustees.
8. All fundraisers that involve food will be smart snack compliant if they fall within school hours (12:00 midnight to ½ hour after the end of school day) or have an exemption (three allowable per school year) signed by appropriate administration. Food based fundraisers will not occur in competition to the National School Lunch Program.
