

PROVIDENCE HALL CHARTER SCHOOL

Home Schooling Enrollment Policy

Providence Hall requires that home-school students who are enrolled as a student of Providence Hall, attend Providence Hall at least 75% of the time over the course of a week. Failure to attend school at least 75% of the time as a result of home-schooling, will result in the student being withdrawn from Providence Hall.

In the event that a student is home-schooled for a core subject, the student will still be held accountable for their performance in the core subject area and will be required to complete regular assessments as required by the school. The parents of this student shall communicate on a regular basis with the classroom teacher to assure that the teacher is aware of the student's performance and progress.
